American River Flood Control District Transitioning to a District Election System Staff Report

Discussion:

The California Voting Rights Act of 2001 (CVRA) is intended to help local government agencies like ARFCD to implement the fundamental right of our democracy: the right to vote for one's elected representatives. In implementing the CVRA, as well as the federal Voting Rights Acts, the courts have found that district election systems that rely on "at large" voting (i.e., all of the residents within a public agency's boundaries vote for two or three trustees) are less likely than election systems that rely on district or division-based elections (e.g. elections for the City of Sacramento) to reflect the will of all of the electors. The reason is simple: when all of the seats on a district's governing board can be elected by 50%+1 of the voters, groups of voters that do not by themselves constitute a majority of all votes (e.g., different neighborhoods) can find themselves without representation on the governing board.

ARFCD currently employs an at-large system to elect its Board of Trustees. In an at-large system like the District's, candidates receive votes from all registered voters within the District's jurisdictional boundaries. Under a by-district election process, the District would be divided into smaller, geographic voting districts. Each Board candidate would be required to reside within the specific voting district that he or she seeks to represent, and only the registered voters within that same voting district could vote for that candidate.

Over the past few years, the Board of Trustees has focused many different efforts on being more transparent about what ARFCD does and how we serve the public. For instance, the website was recently redesigned, audio recordings of the Board meetings are being made available to the public, and the Trustees have shown renewed interest in (and attendance at) neighborhood association meetings. All of these are good initiatives and help foster good democratic governance.

The question for the Board of Trustees is whether it wishes to take another step along this path and begin the process of transitioning from at-large elections to elections by districts. Staff recommends that the Board of Trustee decide to move from the present at-large district election system to a by-district election system. Staff further recommends that the Board of Trustees direct staff to develop cost estimates and a timeline for this transition. Given the winter holidays, staff requests that a report back on this matter be scheduled for the February 2020 meeting of the Board of Trustees.

AMERICAN RIVER FLOOD CONTROL DISTRICT RESOLUTION NO. 2019-06

Resolution of Intention to Convert to By-District Elections

WHEREAS, the Trustees of the District are currently elected in at-large elections, in which each Trustee is elected by all registered voters within the District; and

WHEREAS, Section 10650 of the California Elections Code authorizes the governing body of a special district to change by resolution to district-based elections without the need to put such a change to voters; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Trustees has determined that it is in the best interest of the District to move from its current at-large electoral system to a by-district election of Directors; and

WHEREAS, the currently ongoing 2020 Census will yield up-to-date data regarding the population and demographics needed to move to district-based elections; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Trustees seeks to use the most up to date data in moving to a district-based election system.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that:

- 1. The District will immediately begin the effort to transition the District election system into an election system that elects Trustees by districts.
- 2. Staff are directed to begin the process of such transition and to use data from the 2020 Census to draw district boundaries.
- 3. Staff are also directed to report back to the Board of Trustees on the status of this effort in February 2020 and every month thereafter until the transition is completed.

PASSED AND ADOPTED this 13th day of December 2019

FROTECTING LIVES AND PROPERTY IN OUR COMMUNITY SINCE 1927

Give Your Levee Some Love

It's reassuring to know first responders—police, fire, and ambulance—are a 9-1-1 call away. But there's another emergency system in place that you might not know exists. The levees that line our rivers are part of it.

Though levees may look like elevated walking and cycling paths, they're actually engineered structures that make up part of a sophisticated flood control system that protects us. In fact, the Sacramento region owes its very existence to levees.

In his book, Battling the Inland Sea, author Robert Kelley writes about Sacramento's first flood in 1850, the year the city was born, "The town of Sacramento, as these events revealed, was built in the middle of an inland sea that the Indians had warned appeared almost annually on the Valley floor. Few in the city, however, knew or talked with the Indians."

The 1850 flood led to the city's first levees, which quickly gave way in the high-water season of 1852. Since then, a succession of floods has resulted in taller and sturdier levees. Dams, reservoirs, weirs, canals, bypasses, and other solutions followed, eventually combining to create the flood control system we depend on today. In that system, levees are the last line of defense, the sturdy guardians that stand between floodwaters and countless lives.

At American River Flood Control District, our job is to inspect, mow, repair, and monitor the levees so that they're able to serve when the need arises.

Two Rivers Bike Trail

The American River bike trail (Jedediah Smith Memorial Trail) is one of our region's most celebrated features. Though it's been in use since the 1970s, the original vision for a trail running along both sides of the American River has yet to be realized.

The 3.4-mile stretch between the H Street Bridge and Tiscornia Park at Jiboom Street, across the river from the existing trail, presented a special challenge. Thanks to erosion from the 1986 flood, the space between the river, levee, and private properties was too narrow for a trail in one quarter-mile stretch. Yet, running a heavily trafficked trail along the top of the levees would have made maintaining the levees through this critical stretch of river extremely difficult.

Through a collaborative process between the City of Sacramento, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, and property owners, a workable route was found this year. The proposed path will run along the river side of the levee for most of the distance. Where that area is too narrow, the trail will travel along the crown of the levee for about 1,500 feet before descending back down to the levee base.

The city has prepared and presented an environmental impact report and expects to begin trail construction in 2020.

New Technology to Inspect Old Pipes

Part of the levees' history is buried within them. Pipes that convey gases and liquids have been run through the levees since the Gold Rush era. An early survey indicated that there were about 400 existing pipes running through the levees we maintain, though the old documentation is poor and includes duplicate entries, incorrect locations, and pipes that were removed.

Part of our task of maintaining levee integrity is knowing the location of every pipe that runs through our levees and if they need to be sealed, removed, repaired, or replaced. That's why we took advantage of a California Department of Water Resources (DWR) grant program that covers the costs of ground-penetrating radar technology to look for suspected pipes.

We also took advantage of a DWR grant to use video inspection technology to determine the condition of the stormwater drainpipes. Drainage pipes corrode over time and must be replaced. The pipes can also become filled with silt and debris. And the gates that prevent backflow can get stuck or fail to function properly. Any of these conditions can reduce a pipe's ability to carry away stormwater, which can lead to neighborhood flooding.

Before the video inspections, we had to visually inspect pipes that could run for up to 250 feet, which was all but impossible to do. The grant is allowing us to inspect 47 drainage pipes much more efficiently. Following the inspections, DWR will review the findings and help prepare a pipe rehabilitation plan that outlines and prioritizes the repairs.

Share the Trail

ur levees are used for so many activities that it's easy to forget how vital they are to our region's safety. At the American River Flood Control District, our job is to keep the levees in flood-ready condition, which means you'll often see us on the levees performing maintenance activities.

Please Watch for Heavy Equipment

Some of our responsibilities require using heavy equipment, including long-arm mowers that can kick up rocks and debris. Rather than inconveniencing people by closing down levee sections while we work, we do our best to share the levee with people and pets.

By following these simple courtesies, you can help us maintain that open policy:

- Stay aware of your surroundings when walking or cycling on or near levees.
- Never assume an operator can see or hear you. They can seldom do either.
- Stay back or signal operators before passing near equipment.
- Never cross under the extended mower arm.
- Never sneak by when a tractor or dump truck is backing up.
- Keep pets leashed and well away from equipment.

REMEMBER, operators of large, noisy equipment can't always see or hear what's happening around them. When they become aware of pedestrians, cyclists, or pets in potential danger, operators have to halt operations to protect public safety. Stopping work, sometimes several times a day, increases costs for taxpayers (like you) who pay for levee maintenance.

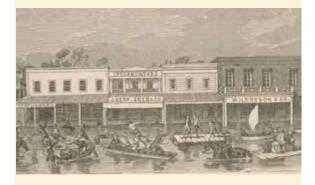

We mow, inspect, and repair the levees so that they stand strong against floods.

Learning from History

The Great Flood of 1861-1862 was one for the history books. The warm atmospheric-river storm dropped almost 10 feet of rain in 43 days and melted the Sierra Nevada snowpack. The combined rain and snowmelt overwhelmed the young city—sending it to the bottom of a great inland sea.

Waiting on the Next Megastorm

The 1862 storm was unusual, but geological evidence shows that megastorms like it have hit California about every 200 years. No one can predict when the next one will come, which is why maintaining our levees matters so much.

The flooding that began in December of 1861 continued well into the spring. Getting around still required a boat when this image was drawn in March of 1862.

Scott Webb, Field Supervisor

Scott didn't have to travel far to join the district this fall—just from the levee bottom to its top. Before the district asked him to come on board, Scott was the maintenance supervisor for the American River Parkway with Sacramento County Regional Parks. In that role, Scott worked alongside and collaborated with Ross Kawamura, superintendent for the American River Flood Control District, and other district staff. That's why Ross knew Scott could take on his role when he retires.

"When the district folks said, 'We need you,' I decided to make the move," says Scott. "I get to continue working on the parkway, managing people, maintaining equipment, and protecting the environment. I also appreciate the levees' role in flood protection—and I like the view from the top."

Scott holds a bachelor's degree in management and served in the U.S. Air Force for 26 years, where he oversaw aircraft maintenance as a squadron leader. While it won't be easy to fill Ross' work boots, we feel lucky that Scott agreed to answer the call.

Applicant Statement for the Special District LAFCO Representative

I moved from Glassboro New Jersey to Rio Linda Elverta in 1981, along with my 3 year old daughter and my husband.

Almost immediately I became involved with Sacramento County Service Area #3 which was the forerunner of our current independant Parks and Recreation District serving the Rio Linda Elverta Communities. This involvement was the result of reading a statement in the local paper, indicating that the Parks Advisory Board had determined that there were sufficient equestrian trails in the area. I was very happy to advocate for additional trails and in the process begin my education in local governance processes.

Over the next several decades I was appointed to numerous County and Local advisory boards, steering committees and ad hoc committees. My interest expanded to include growth issues, flood issues and agriculture/suburban/urban issues.

I learned a great deal about how government works and how Special Districts fit into the process. I became a strong advocate for local governance after going through 3 incorporation attempts in the Rio Linda Elverta communities and in the education process I switched from anti-incorporation to pro-incorporation for unincorporated communities.

In about 1992 I was appointed to the RLE CPAC in and served during the Community Plan Update. I am familiar with the governance process and with procedures for arriving at a decision as a board member. I have served several terms on CPAC under four different County Supervisors since that initial appointment. All of these experiences were very educational for me.

In 2002 I successfully ran for the Rio Linda Elverta Recreation and Parks District. I truly enjoyed and have greatly benefited from the experience of becoming an elected board member. I ran again in 2016 and am currently serving as Secretary for the RLE Recreation and Parks District.

I believe that my history in the community and experience as an elected public official will be an asset for Special Districts as a LAFCO Special District Board member.

Thank you,

Charlea R. Moore
